

Summary RET 01-11

Treatment of macular edema secondary to central or branch vein occlusion by intravitreal injection of dexamethasone (OZURDEX)

The study was approved on January 25, 2011 and was terminated on September 30, 2012.

Attached is the publications of the results of the study.