

The plots below illustrate the median, 5th and 95th Centiles for quality of life data collected on the STOMP trial. The graph on the left is an illustration of all data collected and the graph on the right restricts data to the first 6 months. The bars either side of the median denote the 5th and 95th centiles for each parameter.

Figure 30: Plots of Quality of Life Data

